

CIVIL DISCOURSE:

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION: The audience is asked to consider the following questions –

- 1. What do you appreciate most about living in our community?
- 2. Are you concerned that our community may be headed in the wrong direction? If so, in what ways?
- 3. What, if any, divides do you feel in our community?
- 4. What do you think needs to happen for us to heal any divides in our community and to work together effectively?
- 5. What specific actions can individuals take to help create a more positive tone in our community?

Your final question: What specific action(s) can you take to create constructive communication within your own sphere of influence?

